Greeting from the Egg Day Committee & Royalty

Royalty selection is one of the first activities to take place as we begin to prepare for our annual festival. The Royal Court is one of the most visible parts of the Egg Day Festival. They make appearances around town, travel with the float to other community parades, and also perform community service in the area.

The Winlock Egg Day Pageant is a competition for the title of Egg Day Queen or King and their Court. The position is that of an Ambassador of Winlock who will be expected to attend parades and other community events throughout the year and positively influence the youth in and around our community.

We want this to be a positive experience for contestants and their families. Our goal is to increase your interest in your community and encourage an atmosphere where your personal goals can be met and your full potential can be realized.

Evening Wear25% of overall score

All of our contestants will compete in the evening wear competition in the gown of their choice. Each contestant will take her walk in a moment in the spotlight showcasing their poise, personality, and confidence on stage. All of our contestants will use a predetermined walking pattern that will be provided in your newsletters leading up to pageant weekend.

Contestants can compete with a 2 minute on stage talent of their choice. Judges will be looking for presence, entertainment value, confidence and poise under pressure. All talent presentations will be stopped at the 2 minute mark. Makeup is allowed in all age divisions for this competition.

Platform/Community Service20% of overall score

A platform is something you do for someone or group that you are passionate about. No, you do not have to have a platform. It is always nice to do nice things in your community and there are many ways to do that. Volunteering in any way on an ongoing basis can be very rewarding.

Photogenic

Judges will be looking for age appropriate and natural styling, complimentary grooming, and overall photo quality and presentation. Please note scores in the photogenic competition will not be used toward your Egg Day Royalty scores.
