Full Release of Liability Form

FOR AND IN CONSIDERATION of my being permitted to participate in the Lions Club of Winlock, Egg Day Festival, and all related activities, I hereby agree to the following:

I, the Undersigned, do hereby agree to always adhere to all rules, regulations and policies of the Lions Club of Winlock, Egg Day Festival (referenced on reverse) and to follow all directions and instructions of its officials, including its Security Personnel.

I, the Undersigned do hereby agree to release, relieve, discharge, indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Lions Club of Winlock, Egg Day Festival staff, all Winlock Egg Day Festival participants, and the City of Winlock, and their officers, agents, volunteers and employees, from all claims, losses, suits, damages, judgments, expenses, costs, and charges of every kind, including court costs and attorney's fees, herein under contract by reason of personal injuries, death or property damages. The undersigned further agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Lions Club of Winlock, Egg Day Festival staff, all Winlock Egg Day Festival participants, and the City of Winlock, and their officers, agents, volunteers and employees, from any claims and for all damages, costs and expenses, including without limitation, court costs and attorney's fees and amounts paid in settlement incurred in connection with such claims arising out of acts of negligence of undersigned, his/her agents or employees, by reason of my participation in events related to the Lions Club of Winlock, Egg Day Festival, or such events in which may represent the Lions Club of Winlock, Egg Day Festival. The paragraph shall survive termination of this Agreement.

I, the Undersigned fully understand that the terms of the Full Release shall serve as a Full Release and Full Assumption of risks for me, my heirs, executors and administrators and for all persons authorized by me accompanying me to the Event.

I, the undersigned have read the Full Release form, understand its terms and acknowledge that without my acceptance, I will not be permitted to participate in the Event.

I, the Undersigned, hereby accept all the terms of the Full Release of Liability as evidenced by my signature below.

Rules, Regulations and Policies include, but are not limited to:

ROYALTY GUIDELINES:

1. Commitment: Contestant must be available for all specified functions, parades, fundraisers, and meet the button sales deadlines, unless there is an emergency or schedule conflict. If you are unable to attend a function, parade, or fundraiser please submit your request for excusal in writing in a timely matter.
2. Flexibility: Unscheduled events will occur during the season that you will be asked to attend.
3. Representation: As an official representative of Winlock, it is imperative to adhere to the ethics and goals of the Coronation Committee.
4. Season: Your “season” obligations run from March of the current year through the Egg Day festival (3rd weekend in June) of the following year. (you will be asked to participate in both the coronation and parade as out-going royalty)
5. Regulations: Contestants must abide by all regulations, including etiquette, dress code, respect and participation in all required events. Use of Drugs or alcohol will be cause for immediate disqualification. Any violation of Federal, State, or Local Laws by a contestant is grounds for disqualification.

PARADE ETIQUETTE:

1. Contestants will be responsible for ensuring the appropriate décor and attire for the parade float.
2. It is preferred that you NOT carry your phone while in a parade, but if you must, DO NOT be on your phone while on the float.
3. Sell buttons to fellow parade attendees. Wear approved attire and be respectful to everyone.
4. Float rules are that the current Queen/King rides on the upper level, additional court members ride below. Exceptions can be made if approved by the reigning Queen/King.
5. Friends or family are not allowed on the float for any reason. Exceptions are made for small children.
6. Must always be on the float in time for judging. Check with your Director or selected chaperone for times and other instructions.
7. Royal Court shall not leave the float until it has been cleaned, garbage bagged and all items are stored properly for transport.
8. Remember, you are representing Winlock and Egg Day - Smile, wave, be polite, and thank the volunteers who are sponsoring the event, helping pull the float, chaperone, etc.

Ethics, Regulations, and Code of Conduct:

Contestants unwilling to adhere to ethics and code of conduct are subject to a disqualification review by the Royal Chairperson and Committee, who maintains the right to dismiss a candidate from the Program for good cause.

Failure to commit to events, fundraisers, and parades, creating excessive hardships for other contestants, drug or alcohol abuse, stealing, indecent appearance or behavior, and not turning in button money are causes for disqualification, pending a committee review.

Leaving events before being excused will count as a complete lack of attendance at that event.

REWARDS FOR COMPETING:

~As of January 2026, the committee has been working on implementing additional incentives and “prizes”. Further details will be announced as confirmation is received.

PRIZE ALLOCATION AND DISTRIBUTION:

Each contestant must have a minimum of 500 buttons sold, and money turned in by May 31st of the current year to qualify for the clothing allowance, participate in the Coronation, and be eligible for the 15% cash prize for their button sales

The Queen/King will be eligible for either $250.00 or 15% of his/her button sales, whichever is greater.

Penalty fees will be deducted for unexcused absences from a contestant's prize money at the rate of $10.00 per parade or required event. Excused absences will be granted on a case-by-case basis. Penalty funds deducted from contestant's winnings will be applied to the winnings of the reigning Egg Day Queen/King. All prize money owed to contestants will be paid in the form of cash or check after the entire Coronation Season commitment has been met. All awards and prizes will be distributed on Coronation night of each campaign year.

Community Service: Contestant will use the approved time and report cards to give to your volunteer supervisor at any given non-profit agency where the work is done. You are required to have at least 30 hours of community service provided to the Royalty Committee Chairperson or their designee by the Wednesday before Coronation ceremonies. Community Service hours account for 20% of your score and the more hours the higher your score can be. Note: Egg Day parades and community events are considered community service – make sure you get your time documented.

Judging of Contest:

Judges will be given a score sheet based on a point value system which will be broken down into the following categories. Button sales and Community Service hours will be based on documentation you have provided on the attached forms. Coronation judging will be based on personal presentation and public speaking ability.

40% Button Sales

20% Community Service hours and scores

40% Judging

10% Participation in individual/group talent

10% Poise and formal wear introductions

10% Private interview with judges

10% Public Interview (questions by judges during ceremony)

I have read and understand the above contestant qualifications and royalty guidelines.

Button Sales Information & Tracking Sheet

Our Winlock Egg Day buttons not only advertise and promote our city and festival, but your button sales will count for 40% of your overall contestant score and you can earn 15% of your button sales, which are payable at the end of each campaign year pursuant to you complying with your contract requirements. (Penalty fees in the amount of $10.00 per unexcused event absence will be deducted from a contestant's prize money).

Discussion of the number of buttons sold with anyone outside your immediate family, Egg Day representatives, or button/money processing volunteers is not allowed. It is extremely important that this information remains confidential. Please stress to your immediate family members the importance of not discussing your sales with others – your success may depend on this!

Please do not sell buttons without certain precautions. An escort or partner is not absolutely required but greatly advised. An escort or partner will keep an eye on your sales and cash as well as keeping an eye out for trouble. Always keep your cell phone on your person. Report any trouble to your escort, mentor, director, or call 911.

Your "Button Contact" this year is _____. They will be your point of contact for depositing your button money and signing for buttons. They cannot give advice about deadlines or sales. You must deposit money collected on a scheduled basis as determined by your "Button Contact". Total button sales will be tallied and carried forward and must be acknowledged via signature by you, or a member of your immediate family. Please be aware that the "Button Contact" is not paid for their services, be very respectful and thank them for volunteering to help us.

FIRST DEADLINE: Contestant must have a minimum of 300 buttons sold and money turned into the "Button Contact" by April 30th to continue in the contest.

SECOND DEADLINE: Contestant must sell a minimum of 500 buttons (total sales) with the money turned in by May 31st to qualify for the clothing allowance; to be able to participate in the Coronation ceremony and be eligible for 15% of their button sales. Contestants will continue to sell and turn in money collected and/or any unsold buttons until the Wednesday before Coronation to add points for the overall contest scoring and cash prizes. Note: If money is donated and no button is sold, then each two dollars donated will be counted as a button sold for total sales purposes.

The Queen/King will be eligible for the first prize of $250.00 or 15% of his/her button sales, whichever is greater.

I have read and understand the above button sales information.
